1. Motions to amend the agenda pursuant to section 122 (2) of the AktG

Shareholders whose combined shareholdings equal or exceed one-twentieth of the share capital (9,500,000 shares) or represent a proportionate interest of EUR 500,000.00 in the share capital (equivalent to 500,000 shares) may request that items be placed on the agenda and be announced. Requests must be addressed in writing to

Vorstand der Deutsche Börse Aktiengesellschaft

and must be received no later than by midnight CEST of 13 April 2024. Each new agenda item must be accompanied by supporting information or a draft resolution. Furthermore, the shareholders filing the motion must show that they have held the shares for at least 90 days before the date the motion is received and that they hold the shares until the Executive Board decides on the motion, with section 70 AktG being applicable when calculating the time for which shares have been held. The day on which the motion is received shall not be counted. Any move from a Sunday, Saturday or public holiday to a preceding or subsequent business day shall not be possible. Sections 187 to 193 of the German Civil Code (BGB) shall not be applied accordingly.

To the extent not already announced in the notice of the Annual General Meeting, amendments to the agenda that require publication will be announced promptly upon receipt of the request in the Federal Gazette (Bundesanzeiger). Any such amendments will also be published online at www.deutsche-boerse.com/agm and communicated to shareholders in accordance with the statutory requirements.

These shareholder rights are based on the following provisions of the AktG:

Section 122 Calling a shareholders' meeting at the request of a minority (excerpt)

(1) ¹A shareholders' meeting shall be called if shareholders whose combined shares amount to at least one twentieth of the share capital request such meeting in writing, stating the purpose and the reasons of such meeting; such request shall be addressed to the Executive Board. ²The articles of incorporation may provide that the right to request a shareholders' meeting shall require another form and the holding of a lower share in the share capital. ³Persons submitting a request must prove that they have held the shares for at least 90 days before the date the request is received and that they hold the shares until the Executive Board decides on the request. ⁴Section 121 (7) shall be applied accordingly.

(2) ¹In the same manner, shareholders whose combined shares amount to at least one twentieth of the share capital or represent a proportionate interest in the share capital of at least EUR 500,000 may request that items be placed on the agenda and be published. ²Each new item must be accompanied by supporting information or a proposal for a resolution. ³The request within the meaning of sentence 1 must be received by the company no later than 24 days, in the case of listed companies no later than 30 days, prior to the meeting, excluding the day of receipt.

Section 70 Calculation of the period of shareholding

¹If the exercise of rights arising from the share requires that the shareholder has been the holder of such share for a certain period of time, the right to demand transfer of title from a credit institution, a financial services institution or an enterprise operating under section 53 (1) sentence 1 or section 53b (1) sentence 1 or section 53b (7) of the German Banking Act (KWG) shall be deemed equivalent to ownership. ²The period during which the share has been owned by a predecessor shall be attributed to the shareholder if he/she has acquired the share without consideration, from his/her trustee, as a universal successor, in connection with the winding up of a co-ownership or as a result of a transfer of assets pursuant to section 13 of the Insurance Supervision Act or section 14 of the Building Loan Associations Act.

Section 121 General (excerpt)

(7) ¹For periods and deadlines counted backwards from the date of the meeting, the day of the meeting shall not be included in the calculation. ²Any move from a Sunday, Saturday or public holiday to a preceding or subsequent business day shall not be possible. ³Sections 187 to 193 of the German Civil Code (BGB) shall not be applied accordingly. ⁴In the case of non-listed companies, the articles of incorporation may determine a different calculation of the period.

The Company will publish shareholder counter-motions that must be made available and which it has received at one of the aforementioned addresses by midnight CEST of 29 April 2024 promptly upon receipt online at the above-mentioned Internet address. Any opinions expressed by management on the counter-motions will also be made available online at the above-mentioned Internet address.

The Company may elect not to publish a counter-motion and its supporting information under certain circumstances set forth in section 126 (2) of the AktG, for example where the counter-motion would result in a resolution by the Annual General Meeting that is illegal or in violation of the Articles of Incorporation. Information in support of counter-motions need not be made available if the text exceeds 5,000 characters in total.

The foregoing applies mutatis mutandis to election proposals by a shareholder within the meaning of section 127 of the AktG, although election nominations need not be accompanied by supporting information. Except in the cases set forth in section 126 (2) of the AktG, nominations for election need not be published even if the nomination does not contain the name, exercised profession and residential address of the nominee(s) and, in the case of nominations for election to the Supervisory Board, information on any positions held by such nominee(s) on other statutory supervisory boards. In the case of Supervisory Board elections, nominations should, but are not required to, contain information about positions held on comparable domestic and foreign supervisory bodies of business enterprises.

Counter-motions and nominations from shareholders that must be made available in accordance with sections 126 (1) to (3) and 127 of the AktG are considered to have been submitted as of the date they are made available (article 126 (4) of the AktG). Voting rights may be exercised with respect to such motions and nominations once timely registration is complete using the above-described channels. If the shareholder who submitted the motion is not duly identified and registered for the Annual General Meeting, the motion need not be addressed in the meeting.

The right of duly registered and virtually participating shareholders to submit motions and nominations to the Company during the Annual General Meeting by way of video message shall remain unaffected even without prior submission.

The relevant provisions of the AktG read as follows:

Section 126 Shareholder motions

- (1) ¹Motions by shareholders, including the shareholder's name, statement of grounds and any opinion expressed by management, shall be made available to the eligible persons specified in section 125 (1) to (3) under the conditions specified therein, provided the shareholder has submitted, at least 14 days prior to the meeting, a counter-motion (including statement of grounds) to a proposal by the executive board and the supervisory board on a specific agenda item to the address designated for this purpose in the invitation of meeting. ²The date of receipt shall not be counted. ³In the case of listed companies, the motion shall be made available online on the company's website. ⁴Section 125 (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(2) ¹Counter-motions and statements of grounds need not be made available:

1. to the extent making such information available would subject the executive board to criminal liability,
2. if the counter-motion would result in a resolution by the shareholders' meeting that would be illegal or in violation of the articles of incorporation,
3. if the statement of grounds contains statements which are manifestly false or misleading in material respects or which are defamatory,
4. if a shareholder counter-motion based on the same set of facts has already been made available to a shareholders' meeting of the company pursuant to section 125,
5. if the same shareholder counter-motion, including substantially the same statement of grounds, has already been made available pursuant to section 125 to at least two shareholders' meetings of the company within the past five years and less than one-twentieth of the share capital represented at those meetings voted in favour of such counter-motion,
6. if the shareholder indicates that he/she will not attend or be represented at the shareholders' meeting, or
7. if the shareholder has failed to put forward or have put forward on his/her behalf a counter-motion notified by such shareholder at two shareholders' meetings within the past two years.

²The statement of grounds need not be made available if the text exceeds 5,000 characters in total.

(3) If several shareholders submit counter-motions in respect of the same subject matter to be resolved upon, the Executive Board may consolidate such counter-motions and the respective statement of grounds.

(4) ¹In the case of a virtual shareholders' meeting, motions to be made available in accordance with paragraphs (1) through (3) shall be deemed to have been submitted at the time they are made available. ²The company shall enable voting rights on these motions to be exercised as soon as the shareholders can prove that they meet the requirements for exercising voting rights stipulated by law or in the articles. ³If the shareholder who has submitted the motion is not duly authorized to do so and, if notification of attendance is required, has not given due notification of attendance at the shareholders' meeting, the motion does not have to be dealt with at the shareholders' meeting.

Section 127 Shareholder election nominations

¹Section 126 shall apply mutatis mutandis to shareholder nominations of supervisory board or auditor candidates. ²Such nominations need not include a statement of grounds. ³The Executive Board is also not required to make such nominations available if they do not contain the information referred to in section 124 (3) sentence 4 and section 125 (1) sentence 5. ⁴Regarding nominations made by shareholders for the election of supervisory board members of listed companies, to which the Co-Determination Act (Mitbestimmungsgesetz), the Coal, Iron and Steel Co-Determination Act (Montan-Mitbestimmungsgesetz) or the Co-Determination Amendment Act (Mitbestimmungsergänzungsgesetz) apply, the management board has to add the following information:

- (3) Every member of the supervisory board may request that the Executive Board send the same communication to him/her.

Section 118a Virtual General Meeting (excerpt)

Pursuant to section 130a (3) Sentence 4 of the AktG, the Company may refuse to publish a comment on the conditions set out in section 126 (2) Sentence 1 nos. 1, 3 and 6 of the AktG, for example if the comment contains information that is obviously false or misleading in material respects or if it contains offensive or defamatory language.

Please note that motions, nominations, questions and follow-up questions as well as objections to resolutions of the Annual General Meeting that are contained in a comment will not be taken into consideration. These must be submitted solely in the manner described and in compliance with the requirements and deadlines described.

The underlying provisions of the AktG read as follows:

§ 130a Right to comment and speak at virtual general meetings (excerpt)

Shareholders or their proxies who wish to exercise their right to speak must register their comment with the Company using the password-protected online service at the aforementioned Internet address (www.deutsche-boerse.com/agm). By registering a comment, the shareholder or proxy consents in particular to such comment being accessed during the Annual General Meeting together with their name.

The Company reserves the right to check whether the video connection between the shareholder and the Company is functioning during the Annual General Meeting and prior to the comment being made, and to refuse comments if it is not possible to ensure that the connection is functioning. Details of the technical requirements for submitting comments during the Annual General Meeting can be found in the online service available at www.deutsche-boerse.com/agm.

Pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation, the meeting chairperson of the meeting is authorised to reasonably limit the time shareholders have to speak, and may in particular at the beginning or during the course of the meeting set a reasonable timetable for the meeting overall, for specific agenda items or for specific comments.

The underlying provisions of the AktG and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company read as follows:

§ 130a Right to comment and speak at virtual general meetings (excerpt)

- (3) The chair of the Annual General Meeting is authorized to limit the time in which shareholders are entitled to make statements and ask questions. In particular, he/she is authorized, either at the beginning or during the course of the Annual General Meeting, to set an appropriate period of time for the entire Annual General Meeting, for an individual agenda item or for individual statements or questions.

5. Right to information under section 131 of the AktG

Each duly registered shareholder or their appointed proxy may also request in the virtual Annual General Meeting information on the Company's affairs to the extent necessary to make a proper evaluation of the agenda (see section 131 (1) of the AktG). The duty to provide information generally also extends to legal and business relations between the Company and its affiliates as well as the position of Deutsche Börse Group as a whole and that of the entities included in the consolidated financial statements of Deutsche Börse Aktiengesellschaft; in this case also, the information is provided only to the extent it is necessary to make a proper evaluation of the agenda.

Requests for information at the Annual General Meeting should be made during the virtual discussion time. It is intended that the chairperson of the meeting will stipulate at the beginning of the meeting that the right to information may only be exercised by way of video communication, i.e., in the context of making a comment pursuant to section 130a (5) and (6) of the AktG (see the aforementioned information on the right to speak above), (section 131 1f) of the AktG). No other submission of questions by electronic or other means of communication is envisaged either before or during the Annual General Meeting.

The Executive Board may elect not to answer individual questions for the reasons set out in section 131 (3) of the AktG, for example because providing the information could, based on prudent business judgement, have a material adverse effect on the Company or one of its affiliates (e.g. no disclosure of business secrets).

The underlying provisions of the AktG read as follows:

Section 131 Shareholder's right to information

- (1d) ¹Each shareholder who is electronically connected to the meeting is to be granted the right to ask questions about all the answers given by the Executive Board before and during the meeting by means of electronic communication. ²Paragraph 2 sentence 2 also applies to the right to ask.

(1f) The person chairing the meeting can determine that the right to information under paragraph 1, the right to ask questions under paragraph 1d and the right to ask questions under paragraph 1e may only be exercised in the general meeting by way of video communication.

(2) ¹The information provided shall comply with the principles of conscientious and accurate reporting. ²The articles of incorporation or the rules of procedure pursuant to section 129 may authorise the chairman of the meeting to reasonably limit the shareholders' time to speak and ask questions and stipulate details in this regard.

(3) ¹The executive board may refuse to provide information

1. to the extent that providing such information, based on prudent business judgement, is likely to have a material adverse effect on the company or one of its affiliates;
2. to the extent that such information relates to carrying amounts recognized for tax purposes or the amount of individual taxes;
3. concerning the difference between the carrying amounts recognized for items on the annual balance sheet and, if applicable, the higher value of such items, unless the shareholders' meeting formally adopts the annual financial statements;
4. concerning the accounting and valuation methods to the extent the information provided in the notes to the annual financial statements is adequate to provide a true and fair view of the company's financial position, financial performance and profit or loss within the meaning of section 264 (2) of the HGB; the foregoing shall not apply if the shareholders' meeting formally adopts the annual financial statements;
5. to the extent the provision of information would subject the Executive Board to criminal liability;
6. to the extent, in the case of credit institutions or financial services institutions, information need not be provided on accounting policies and amounts offset in the annual financial statements, the management report, the consolidated financial statements or the group management report;
7. to the extent the information is continuously available online on the company's website for a minimum of seven days prior to the commencement of the shareholders' meeting as well as during the meeting.

²The provision of information may not be refused for any other reasons.

(4) ¹If shareholders receive, in their capacity as shareholders, information outside the shareholders' meeting, such information shall be provided to any other shareholder at the shareholders' meeting upon request, even if such information is not necessary to make a proper evaluation of the relevant item on the agenda.

²In the case of the virtual general meeting, it must be ensured that every shareholder who is electronically connected to the meeting can submit their request in accordance with sentence 1 by way of electronic communication.³The Executive Board may not refuse to provide such information based on (3) sentence 1, nos. 1 to 4. ³Sentences 1 to 3 shall not apply where a subsidiary (section 290 (1), (2) of the Commercial Code – HGB), a joint venture (section 310 (1) of the HGB) or an associated enterprise (section 311 (1) of the HGB) provides information to a parent company (section 290 (1), (2) of the HGB) for purposes of including the company in the consolidated financial statements of the parent company and the information is required for this purpose.

- (5) ¹Shareholders who have been denied information may request that their questions and the reason for which the information was denied be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. ²In the case of the virtual general meeting, it must be ensured that every shareholder who is electronically connected to the meeting may submit his request in accordance with sentence 1 by means of electronic communication.
